A Modern Approach to Concussion: Prevention and Care

presented by

Dignity Health

Dustin Little, DPT, ATC

Dustin is in his first season with the SF 49ers as head athletic trainer. Previously, he spent more than 5 years with the Denver Broncos as an assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist (2014-2015) and director of rehabilitation (2016-18). He also spent the summer of 2013 as an intern with the team's medical department.

Originally from Castlewood, SD, he earned his bachelor's degree from the University of South Dakota while also participating in basketball and football. After graduating, he furthered his education and earned a master's degree from South Dakota State and eventually a doctorate in physical therapy (DPT) from South Dakota.

Dustin is a member of PFATS (Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society). Other specialities include a certification in applied functional science (CAFS) and a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS).

Dustin works closely with team physician/concussion specialist and CCI Medical Director, Dr. Anthony Saglimbeni, to ensure that the SF 49ers all return to play safely after a concussion.
